

SAAC MEMBER.

Is there something about that that sounds good? Does it make you feel just a little superior in the Shelby or Cobra world? It should. When it comes to these cars, being a SAAC member brands you as an "insider." A go-to guy. In fact, the positive feelings toward the club held by its members are so strong that once some owners or enthusiasts become members, they continue to think of themselves as members even after their membership expires. Sometimes for years. Or forever.

Member for life? Not really. Think of the club as a bus ride. You pay for your ticket (annual dues) and you take a seat on the bus. The ride only lasts so long. Then you have to get off and if you want to keep going you have to buy another ticket. You can't keep riding on your original ticket forever. That's how the club works. It's a pay-as-you-go deal. And we hate to leave you standing on the side of the road as the bus takes off, leaving you in a swirl of exhaust and road dust.

A lot of this surprises us, even after forty years. How do you explain former members (yes—we're sorry to say, that's the way we describe them) continuing to display SAAC stickers on the windshield of their car? Why do some former members still order these stickers? We don't get it. We check the name of everyone who orders stuff from SAAC, just out of curiosity, to see if they are on the membership list. But we can't explain why a non-member would want a SAAC sticker, unless he or she doesn't consider themselves a non-member. If we discover the answer to this, we'll tell you.

The club is now forty years old. In car years that's almost 500,000 miles. What fuels our enthusiasm is your enthusiasm. Over the last forty years SAAC has probably had 20,000 members. That's just a guess because we don't keep information like that. We wish we did, but back when the club began we were just happy it was successful. We weren't thinking that far down the road. We also wish we could identify everyone who has been a member since 1975 and never let their member slip. But we don't have that information, either. There can't be many.

The bottom line is that each membership matters. Membership dues pay the freight and enable SAAC to continue our goals: the preservation, care, history and enjoyment of these cars. That has not changed in forty years.

Multiple-year memberships are available and the current rate will inoculate you against any dues increases for the duration of your membership.
